About Us

City Sip & See is a tourism organization that leads small groups on food and drink tours in Denver, Colorado. We keep up with the changing events and are able to base tours around each day or nights activities happening around the city. Some tour agencies can make you feel like just the average tourist who is not doing or seeing anything unique. Our goal at City Sip & See is to provide each group with a different, unique experience that best fits their wants and personalities. We do this by creating relationships with numerous different bars, restaurants, breweries, and venues around the city and planning ahead for each tour visit. So join us if you are looking for a hassle free, unique experience around the mountain city!

Where do we go?
